BOUNDARIES, WALLS & FENCES

10th edition

Trevor Aldridge QC

A practical and comprehensive guide to the law surrounding the determination and contesting of boundaries. Now in its tenth edition, it is the only work available to cover all the legislative and statutory developments in this area.

- The often technical but important regulations are explained in detail and guidance is given on the regime governing construction and repair of walls on the junction of properties; rules on excavations; compensation; and rights of entry
- Offers solutions to the problems and pitfalls which often arise in practice and goes through the regime of notices and counter notices involved in boundary disputes, ensuring that the correct steps are followed.

HAGUE ON LEASEHOLD ENFRANCHISEMENT

5th edition

Anthony Radevsky, Damian Greenish

Hague on Leasehold Enfranchisement gives you comprehensive, detailed guidance on each stage of the leasehold enfranchisement process. It sets out the rights and responsibilities of the landlord and tenant, deals with the intricacies of qualification and valuation, and also covers the related areas of mortgages, sub-tenants and trusts.

- Includes full interpretation of relevant legislation, with all applicable statutes and statutory instruments reproduced
- Fully updated to take account of legal developments
- Considers the extensive reforms and case law resulting from the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002.

COMMERCIAL LEASES TENANTS’ AMENDMENTS

6th edition

Robert Sweet

Commercial Leases: Tenants’ Amendments takes a highly practical approach with a clause-by-clause analysis of leases and the suggestion of amendments that may favour the tenant. The book covers all related and relevant components including: covenants, insurance, service charges, collateral warranties, rent deposit deeds and the Land Registry clauses.

- Includes a full range of precedent for commercial leases and lease agreements, together with standard industry forms
- Presents new case law and legislation updates which are of critical importance to property lawyers amending commercial leases.

NEIGHBOURS AND THE LAW

5th edition

John Pugh-Smith, Graham Sinclair, William Upton

The body of law concerning matters which affect relations between neighbours is wide-ranging and often complex. Now in its 5th edition, Neighbours and the Law is the only publication so comprehensively to draw together all of this information in one volume.

- This practical work explains the possible causes of action and remedies available to parties involved in a dispute
- The 5th edition has been fully updated to take account of numerous developments in the law including the Housing Act 2004, the Clean Neighbourhoods & Environment Act 2005, the Planning Act 2008, amendments to the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 and all relevant new case law.
SERVICE CHARGES AND MANAGEMENT LAW AND PRACTICE

2nd edition
A team of barristers from Tanfield Chambers

Offering comprehensive coverage of the law in an area where disputes have become increasingly common, Service Charges and Management examines the topic from both a landlord’s and a tenant’s perspective.

It provides detailed analysis of legislation and case law, identifying the types of dispute that arise most frequently, and advising on ways of dealing with them. It also considers in-depth the major impact of the service charges provisions in the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002, RICS Residential Service Charge Management Code (2008) and the RICS Commercial Service Charge Management Guide (2007).

- Advises on how to deal with a range of different service charge disputes
- Includes a materials CD with all relevant legislation, forms and precedents enabling easy drafting and customisation of documents
- Covers dispute resolution through LVTs, the courts and arbitration.
